Gift Planning

Your planned giving can help secure our vital commitment to wildlife well into the future

Woodlands is a 501(C)(3) Charity Serving New Jersey's Wild and Human Communities since 1986

F.I.D. #22-3053310

N.J.C.H. #1632300

Why Planned Giving?

Wise investors look for ways to maximize their return on investment. Similarly, a wise donor will take advantage of federal tax incentives specifically intended to encourage charitable contributions. Such incentives often allow a larger gift at the same or even at reduced cost to the donor.

Planned giving also offers you an opportunity to make a difference and leave an enduring legacy by sharing the vision of an organization whose mission you support and by helping to build its future. Planned giving combines philanthropy with financial planning.

Contributions may take a variety of forms and most offer substantial tax, estate planning and other financial benefits. All gifts and bequests are tax deductible.

Your carefully planned gift can enhance financial security for yourself and your family while it strengthens the organization you wish to support.

Help us to always be able to help them.

Why Give to Woodlands Wildlife Refuge?

Since 1986 Woodlands has cared for thousands of animals and continues to assist and release hundreds back to the wilderness every year. As our towns continue to grow so does the number of wild animal and human encounters. Many education programs are presented throughout each year to inspire harmonious existence with our wild neighbors.

As always, Woodlands remains dedicated to continued growth to ensure it can always meet the growing needs of both our wild and human communities.

Woodlands receives no state or federal funding and has always depended on the generosity of others. For many years these generous donations have managed to help meet the basic operating needs and given Woodlands the opportunity to move to a larger facility.

With the basic needs being met and the new facility in order, Woodlands' leaders are now focused on securing Woodlands' existence well into the future. Financial security and planning help remove the daily struggle and provide Woodlands the freedom to concentrate on increasing its services as needed, remaining committed to providing only the best care to its wild patients and offering the best professional help to its human communities. Woodlands Wildlife Refuge will continue to strive to be the best it can be.

Your gift to Woodlands will help make Woodlands' commitment to wildlife permanent and ensure its services well into the future.

Giving Opportunities

Thank you for considering Woodlands Wildlife Refuge as part of your estate planning. This planning can minimize estate taxes and maximize the uses you intend for your wealth—for your heirs and for our charitable organization. You can make a significant gift to Woodlands Wildlife Refuge while meeting your current and future financial obligations. Your generosity may benefit you in several ways.

Please consult with your accountant or financial advisor to select an opportunity that maximizes your gift's benefit to both you and Woodlands Wildlife Refuge.
